FOREWORD

The following pages bear testimony that the life of the College has proceeded more or less normally during the past year. The student body has been the largest in the history of the College, and like a growing youth, has suffered somewhat from growing pains. As we look back, each one may think of different highlights, but everyone in looking back over 1952-53 will see a good year of working and playing together, a year in which the spirit of the school was strengthened and made more alive by the contribution of the students that were in attendance.

It is our hope that your stay at Mount Royal College has made you a little less able to be content with the second best in life. The ultimate aim of education at Mount Royal College is not only high academic attainment but also training in the development of Christian character. We accept completely the statement by Sir Arthur Livingstone, the world's foremost educator, when he said, "The real modern problem in education is to humanize man, to show him the spiritual ideas without which neither happiness nor success is genuine or permanent, to produce beings who will know not merely how to split atoms but how to use their powers for good."

To you who are leaving the school in June we extend our best wishes for success and happiness. May the foundations you have laid for yourselves here prove sound and dependable. The hour demands that you strive as you have never striven before to equip yourselves thoroughly so that when your day comes to face the world and share in its leadership, you will be fit and ready. Finally, may we all dedicate ourselves to the proposition that greatness, beauty and truth are in the very nature of the universe and that inasfar as in us lies, they shall not perish from the earth.

As another year becomes a part of the history of Mount Royal College, it is my hope that it be not unworthy of those that have gone before and that in some measure it may be equally worthy of the future for which we dream, hope and plan.

JOHN H. GARDEN,

Principal.

Mr. Justice C. J. Ford accepting Honorary Degree of LL.D. at University of Alberta Convocation.

DEDICATION

This issue of the VARSHICOM is being dedicated to Mr. Justice Clinton J. Ford in recognition of the many years of service that he has given as vice-chairman of the Board of Governors at Mount Royal College and as Chairman of the Committee on the Conservatory of Music. Mr. Justice Ford has always found time from his many other duties to attend many of the activities of the College. It is particularly appropriate that this year book be dedicated to him at a time when the University of Alberta has honored him by conferring upon him the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws and Letters.

Born on a farm near Corinth, Ontario, Mr. Ford was educated at Tillsonburg High School, Aylmer College and for general proficiency received the Prince of Wales Gold Medal at the time of his graduation from Victoria College, Toronto in 1902.

In 1909, one year after he received his degree at Osgood Law School, he travelled west, residing in Calgary one year before he was called to the Bar.

Two positions in his early career were his appointment as City Solicitor and his membership in the law firm of Ford, Miller and Harvey. Then in 1942 he was raised to Judge of the District Court. In 1945 Justice Ford received his appointment to the Trial Division of the Supreme Court. At present he is a Judge of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Alberta.

Though fond of most sports Mr. Ford is particularly enthusiastic about hockey and football.

Perhaps one of Mr. Ford's keenest interests lies in his work at the Y.M.C.A. Of the 23 men who are life members of Canada's Y.M.C.A., only two reside in the West, one the lieutenant Governor of Manitoba, the other Mr. Justice Ford. At present he is Vice-President of the National Council of the Young Men's Christian Association and is a past president of the Branch in Calgary.

In 1984 Justice Ford attended the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam as a delegate of the United Church of Canada.

A word of advice from Justice Ford to the Graduating Class is: "There is time for work and there is time for play. Try to develop your own personality by hard work, properly balanced with recreation and without imitation or envy of others, and above all ally yourself with the Christian cause."

THE CORONATION YEAR

On April 21, 1926, a little princess was born to the Duke and Duchess of York. Little did the world know that this infant would one day be crowned "Elizabeth II, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom, Canada, and Her Other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, and Defender of the Faith". Even though small Elizabeth Alexandra Mary was third in line to the British throne, it was presumed that 'Uncle David' would marry suitably and have a family, leaving the Yorks out of the picture as far as the throne was concerned.

However, after the death of her grandfather, King George V, and the abdication of Edward VIII, it was known that Elizabeth would one day occupy one of the highest positions the world has to offer. She began to prepare immediately for that great day under the best teachers the world could produce, her 'beloved father' the best of all.

In the present, we realize that she has a bigger role to fulfill than most monarchs. Not only is she Queen of the grandest family of nations the world has known, but she is a mother and a wife, which in itself is a very important role, as she is the mother of the future King of England. From the example she sets, Prince Charles will learn the fundamentals of being a good monarch.

Queen Elizabeth has not come to the throne as a stranger to Canadians. On her tour of Canada a year ago last fall, we found in her a beautiful and charming young woman. In her face we found a strong but pleasant character, and in her voice we found kindness and devotion to her people, but most of all we found the perfect princess who has proven to be the perfect queen.

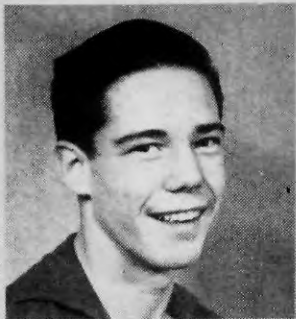

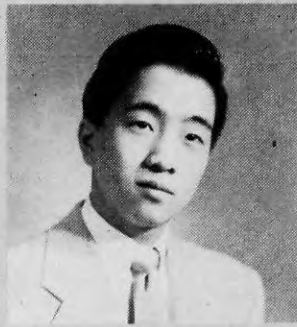

In Prince Philip we find a regent who, with his magnetic personality, smooths the way for his wife in tactful gestures. Without him our Queen would find her tasks twice as rigid as they are. Being keenly interested in all that is about him, he has a marvelous knowledge of incidental things. He is, indeed, a consort with a kingly manner.

On June 2, 1953, a young woman in devotion to her duty has taken oaths which so many monarchs before her have taken — oaths which are so hard to fulfill, which are so important to her people. By taking these vows, Queen Elizabeth has proven that she has faith in us as we in her.

And, Your Majesty, as you have requested of us, we will pray for you to have the strength and courage to fulfill the vows that you have taken.

EDITORIAL

As the 1952-53 school term closes, the latest edition of the Varshicom enters your hands. The annual literary composition of ink, paper and M.R.C. reflects back over the past events of the year, be they social or about sports.

Lest I forget, which I definitely won't, I would like to take this opportunity to express my thanks to Miss Walters, Mr. Rae and the entire staff for making this book possible. One person cannot produce a book such as this. It takes helping hands, whole-hearted participation, and unfailing aid. It isn't the ink and paper that make a good book, it is what it contains.

As you glance thru' the pages, the many phases of life and recreation unfold before your eyes. You will recall the dances, basketball games and other activities that you participated in.

Many will be leaving the "place" to enter another phase of life. Many will be continuing school and entering university to specialize in some specific field of knowledge. Some will apply for the plentiful jobs that lie before them. But the majority of the students will reconvene here again in September. Their job is important. Anyone who enters a new school feels lost and uncertain. At Mount Royal, I feel, it will be different. Also, it is your task to keep all the functions of the student body rolling. Mount Royal is a school in which everyone enjoys the facilities of recreation and fun. Keep it that way.

The final composition of this Yearbook was completed in the last week before the Easter holidays. Everyone had to work twice as fast. To add to the task, there were Easter examinations to be written. I believe the advice of all the past editors would be "Complete the Yearbook before the examinations, and save a lot of unnecessary 'double work'."

Handicapped by an inexperienced staff, including Yours Truly, I cannot tender any excuses for the failures of this edition. But this I can say with assurance and conviction, "We tried very hard". Because many members of the staff were in Grades 10 and 11, the next Varshicom will be operated under dexterous and capable hands.

The whole book ends a year at Mount Royal, whose motto, "Quam bene non quantum", relates the story of the Varshicom — "Quality rather than quantity".

Again, to all who contributed to the making of this Yearbook I give my humble thanks, and to all the readers, "A happy, long, and successful life in the years to come".

President's Message

It has been an honor and a pleasure to have worked with the Students' Council of Mount Royal College for this past year. I appreciate the fine co-operation given by each member, and also the guidance of the staff, especially Mr. Collett.

As we look back over this year we will remember the Election Campaign, Students' Day, Career Day, numerous dances and activities in which everyone participated. We shall not forget the teachers who did their best to squeeze a little knowledge between our pleasures.

We feel that this year at Mount Royal has added to our character and knowledge, making us more competent to face the future.

It is with regret that we realize this year must end. I would like to take this opportunity to wish all the students success and happiness in what ever you may do and wherever you may be.

The Dean's Message

One of the most difficult assignments of the year is to attempt to write something significant for the Varshicom.

While I was puzzling my brains for a new way to express an old idea the morning mail was brought to my desk. It contained a letter from a former student and a part of that letter reads thus: "I sure am missing the good old days at Mount Royal. I can't figure out how I complained every day I was there and now look back at them as the best days of my life." Then I knew that this letter expressed the message that I wanted to give to the students of Mount Royal College who were with us for the 1952-53 term.

There are many things throughout the school term that both the faculty and the students can find to complain about. In one survey of students in the United States one ex-pupil said, "High school was the biggest waste of time in my life. They didn't teach anything useful to me." It is not difficult to find a teacher who says, "I just wear myself out trying to teach students who just do not want to learn." So the battle of the books goes on year after year.

It is when we stand back a little way and view our school experience with perspective that the deep meaning of our School and College years is revealed to us. Then we discover that during these hectic years we have built up a good general background of practical as well as cultural information. We have had a variety of experiences in different activities. Most of all, through classes, clubs, and student councils, we have had a chance to learn to work co-operatively with others, to get along with them and to develop real leadership.

Those who are responsible for helping the students of Mount Royal College to gain a true education in terms of cultural background, practical experience and personal development hope that you all have spent some of the best years of your lives here. When you leave us and enter into the world of post school years we hope that you will remember kindly our efforts on your behalf. If that is so then the work Mount Royal College seeks to do will have been well done.

W. J. COLLETT

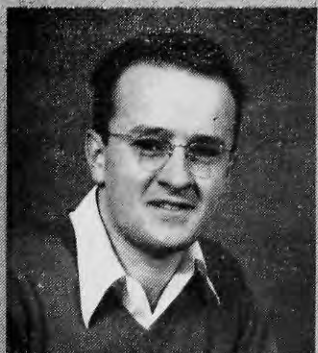

MESSAGE TO
The University Class
OF 1952 - 53

In an age dominated by a philosophy of naive materialism, it is difficult to achieve the proper orientation in our stream of culture. Education affords an opportunity to acquire that sense of perspective which assists one to deal rationally with present problems against a background of human experience and accomplishment.

In the alarming flood of information and techniques to which one is exposed in the early days of University life, there is a tendency to take for granted the heritage of genius which they represent. It is not without obligation that we accept these accumulated products of selfless endeavour. International in their origin, their benefits are for all mankind. Generated by man's creative urge, they must be used for constructive purposes. Conceived in the matrix of self-dedication, they oblige us to dedicate ourselves to extend the frontiers of knowledge.

Valedictory

"Fifty-two—fifty-three" is nearly of the past, a date to be plated with gold and connected by a golden chain to a school pin; a thing of beauty to be displayed upon the heaving bosom of some future ward of Mrs. Stevie, at the request of an ardent swain. Once more the time has come to bid farewell to Mount Royal and its odd assortment of sights, smells, methods of skipping assembly, and those undefinably weird creatures who some choose to call the faculty.

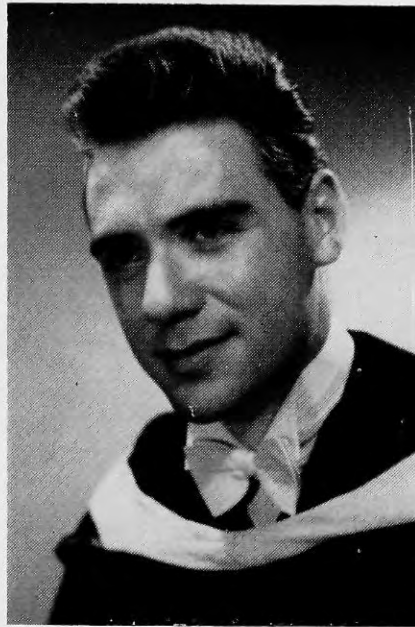

By this last unfortunate group the arduous task of impressing knowledge upon the youthful mind has been taken competently in hand and it remains to be seen whether or not the dawn of understanding has illumined our minds.

We are now at the peak of our High School education. It is time to cease grinding, unmesh our gears, and peer out about us in an effort to take stock of our situation. For some twelve years now we have been subjected to an intensive memory course: twelve years of brain-straining, mind-making, pencil pushing. Our time has been occupied by the memorization of principles and methods of applying these principles. Yet these twelve years have been only preparation for what lies ahead. We are now ready to grapple with University, where lies that haven where the desirable status of being "Pronounced completely full" exists.

This brings us to a crossroad. We must choose now whether we shall recognize those twelve years as preparation and continue our education; or whether we shall stride, prematurely, out into the world to receive the rest of our knowledge from the often cruel hand of fate.

But whatever we do and wherever we go, the memory of Mount Royal will always remain with us. A memory which, when recalled, will invariably wring from our lips the words: "Ah, those were the good old days!" Therefore we must say thank you parents, faculty, and friends, for making these good old days the best days of our lives.

STEVEN PEDERSEN

MESSAGE TO
The High School
1952 - 53

As those of you who have valiantly suffered through with me in English know, I am not partial to redundancy in writing. I shall, therefore, attempt to convey my thoughts to you as succinctly as possible.

First, a word to the graduating class. I suggest to you that what most of us look for in life is self-realization. If Mount Royal College has helped you to discover your capabilities, it is now for you to develop these.

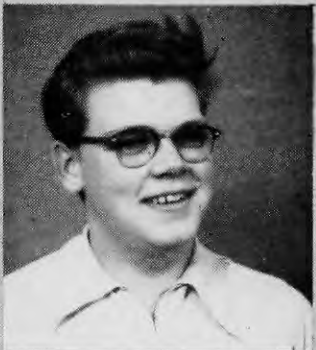

Secondly, I suggest that your education here has given you more than a means to employment. It has given you a guide to living and to understanding; a philosophy of existence. In this way Mount Royal College will always be an essential part of your make-up; a determining and guiding force in your life.

To those of you who are returning next year — best of luck. May you attain full realization of the qualities that make for mature and responsible citizenship; qualities which are vital to our nation and to this insecure planet.

We wish you well as you enter the business world that is eagerly waiting to welcome you. We hope that the knowledge and skills you have acquired will be adequate to ensure success for you. May you attain your highest ambitions. Competence in your work, however, is not enough for you to be an asset to society or to enjoy a full life. We hope that you will continue to develop intellectually and spiritually. STUDENTS' DAY

On February 27th the students took over the government of Mount Royal College and did an excellent job of it, too.

The principal positions of the staff were taken over by the corresponding positions of the Students' Council, and a committee of students acted as teachers. The acting principal, vice principal and secretaries were served lunch at the head table in the dining room and enjoyed the honor bestowed upon them.

Everyone whole-heartedly bent to the fun, and the result was completely satisfactory. The students had a chance to return some of what they had taken, and the staff enjoyed an earned rest. On the whole, the experiment was a great success and it is hoped that it will be made an annual event.

SHEILA COPITHORNE

CAREER DAY

On March 3rd a special day was held. "Career Day" was organized and finally came to being. The purpose of Career Day was to help the students obtain an idea of the business world.

The session opened in the afternoon in the gymnasium, with Charles Jinks introducing the well known Harold E. Panabaker, who spoke fluently on "How to Choose a Career". From this point, the students attended two different lectures on different careers. Between these lectures the speakers were graciously served with tea in the dining room.

The experiment turned out to be helpful and enjoyable to all the students as well as to the speakers. This will be held again in following years as an annual event.

Also, we sincerely thank all the speakers who kindly gave their time so willingly to aid us.

SPEECH DRAMA DEPARTMENT

The Speech and Drama department of the Mount Royal College Conservatory of Music has been happy to serve a wide number of persons interested in Speech and Theatre.

During the past years, many students have been prepared for the practical and theoretical examinations in the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto, and for the Trinity College examinations, London, England. We have been successful in gaining very high marks, and winning several scholarships and awards.

There are many opportunities for class work in our department, with classes in the theory of speech being held weekly from September until February, test classes with the students giving constructive criticism under the guidance of the department teachers, and classes in Children's Theatre.

Several plays have been presented by the students of Children's Theatre. The first presentation was given on December 10th and the plays were "Rumple Stilt Skin" and "Little Black Sambo." In March two very delightful plays were given, "Cinderella" and "Little Red Riding Hood".

Classes in Speech and Personality have been given to the members of the Commercial department, and several courses in Public Speaking have been given during the year.

In the Speech and Drama department we feel that the students are given grace and poise, a firm foundation in the development of self-reliance, imagination, bodily movement, and clear, distinct voices. We are delighted to be able to offer such a complete background of training to interested students.

M.R.C. GLEE CLUB

Early last fall a group of M.R.C. enthusiasts solicited members to form a Glee Club again this year. This has been, or is becoming, an annual endeavor at Mount Royal College and it certainly helps to create a variety of interest for the students. Harold Ramsay once again wholeheartedly donated his time and energy to conduct our attempts. Verna Cleland was elected as President, Irene Stowell as Secretary, and Dallas High as Librarian at one of our first gatherings.

The Glee Club entertained the Student Body Assembly one morning last fall. This spring we are eagerly looking forward to a concert, which, by the sounds of the music, should be very enticing for all. Solos, skits, duets, trios, and quartets along with a number of chorus pieces will comprise the evening's entertainment.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

As the end of this academic year approaches, we of the Conservatory of Music faculty send to you, the Class of '52-'53, not only our good wishes but our hopes that the musical as well as the practical knowledge to which we have endeavored to guide you will have obtained a lasting place in your mind.

The main desire of the Mount Royal College Conservatory of Music is that the many fine singers and instrumentalists who graduate from its classes will

MOUNT ROYAL SYMPHONY ORCHESTRAS

This year the Mount Royal Symphony Orchestra under the capable direction of Mr. John S. Bach had a very enjoyable season as a result of the untiring efforts of their conductor, who never failed to help anyone in need as far as musicianship goes. Two concerts were given and of course there was the traditional entry in the Music Festival. One thing can be said to those few people who did not enjoy the quality of the music issuing forth, and that is that regardless of the results, a very enjoyable time was had by all at the practices. I might make special notice here that they, in practices, tried some music which was way over their heads as far as difficulty goes. For example, Schubert's Unfinished Symphony was given a whirl by the young artists, but was finally take with them an understanding of music, and with it a desire to write as well as to express fine compositions.

Our test classes, students' recitals, orchestras and Glee Club have all given a very good account of themselves during the year, and will, I am sure, long remain as a most happy remembrance of the time spent at Mount Royal College.

HAROLD RAMSAY

discarded after several attempts, because of the difficulty of the work.

The Mount Royal Junior Symphony had a terrific season. Serving as a demonstration group, it went out to the various districts of this fair city (Calgary?) in an effort to convince the residents and the PTA that there are more than pianos and violins in the world of music. Talented young players in the various sections of the orchestra demonstrated their instruments with great agility and musicianship. May this work keep up in this fair city, bringing not only clarinets and trumpets to the homes of Calgary's school children, but even that almost unheard of instrument, the flute. I take this opportunity to thank Mr. Bach for his efforts in this direction. Would that this inspire Calgary culture now and in the years to come!

SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

ENGINEERS' BALL

The highlight of our social season was the formal presentation of the Engineer's Ball. A splendid job was done on the decorations which adorned the gym; two large oil derricks done in silver were on either side of the stage. The queen's throne, which was centered on the stage, was surrounded by the six-piece orchestra of Mrs. Bonaparte, who supplied various forms of dance music in fine style. Preceding the dance a reception was held in the lounge, with the faculty and the queens acting as hosts and hostesses. Marlene Whissell representing Kerby House, Sharon Sang for Garden and Eileen McCloskey for Stanley, were the girls contesting for queen.

Mr. McGregor, at approximately ten thirty, introduced the queens, each carrying nosegays made up of red roses. Sharon Sang was crowned Queen of the Engineers by Dr. Garden, and then was presented with a heart-shaped gold locket and a beautiful bouquet of red roses. Following a buffet style banquet of cold turkey, ham, an assortment of salads, rolls, ice cream and cake, which took place in the dining room of the college, dancing again continued in the gym until one o'clock, after which most couples went to Gene's or to private house parties.

This was a terrific formal. Congratulations, Engineers!

FACULTY RECEPTION AND DANCE

The first dance of the year was a dance presented to the student body by the faculty of Mount Royal College. The hall was gaily decorated in the school colors of blue and white. The music of Harold Sheeran, along with prizes for the spot dances, contributed to make this a great success. One of the highlights of the evening was the introduction of the teachers to the student body. Refreshments were served to the many students present, and a good time was had by all.

SADIE HAWKINS DANCE

This hilarious event ended up an eventful week during which many strange spectacles took place. To the horror of the girls who appeared in blue jeans, patched shirts, and a variation of socks, shoes and earrings, the Engineers appeared as models of the best-dressed men, in suits, ties and white shirts. In their way of revenge, the girls attacked them with lipstick and kisses. In a return attack, the boys proceeded to douse the girls in the boys' showers (ask Louise, Bev, Jan, Marg and Jean). Coming back to the dance, turnabouts were still in order and the girls paid for the boys. Refreshments were served and we can guarantee that fun was had by everyone.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY DANCE

I think the little elves and gnomes must have had an inkling of the dance in memory of dear old St. Patrick, which came off at Mount Royal College, as they all seemed to be present; and "begorra" by the Saints of old Ireland there was a wearin' of the green that night.

Thanks to the decorating committee the auditorium took on the appearance of the "Land of Shamrocks" itself. Dancing started at 9 o'clock and everyone being in the mood of the occasion had a terrific time taking part in the spot dances, bingo dances and the elimination dances. The teachers who were responsible for added entertainment came through with the novel idea of presenting a magician who mystified most of those present. Refreshments were served downstairs and the evening's fun of laughing and dancing came to an end at a quarter to twelve.

ENGINEERS' FAREWELL PARTY

After two long months of much studying on the part of the Engineers, for their final exams, they organized a farewell party for themselves. This took place at the new Al-San Club on Friday, April 17th. Music for the evening was supplied by well-selected records.

Midway through the dance, Jim Wallace, the president of our Students' Council, presenting to Doug Hamilton, who represented the Engineers, the "Blood Trophy", which was awarded to them for donating the highest percentage of blood to the Red Cross. A short while later the minstrel boy, Don Thompson himself, no less, after making several attempts to land on the piano stool, finally made it and then put the old piano a-jumping to the Engineers' Song. Ever heard it? It's all about a "lady". Everyone, of course joined in the singing of this.

After more dancing and merry-making, sandwiches, pickles and coffee were served and the dance came to an end at one o'clock with everyone joining hands in a large circle to sing Auld Lang Syne.

We wish the best of luck to the Engineers in their exams and hope their future will hold much happiness and prosperity for them.

FORECAST OF ATHLETIC DANCE AND PARTY

Towards the end of this term the annual athletic dance and banquet of the three houses, Kerby, Stanley and Garden, will take place. This dance will probably be held in the Gymnasium, and the banquet, which will be previous to the dance, should take place in the dining hall. At this banquet, the different athletic awards will be presented to the various students for their outstanding activities in sports, such as curling, basketball, badminton, volleyball, track and hockey. Following this, the dance will most likely get underway, and we're hoping that everyone will have a choice time, as this is going to be one of the last big social functions of the year.

MOUNT ROYAL

VALENTINE'S DANCE

Cupid, in the form of Don Brownlee, who appeared in diapers, arrived a day early at Mount Royal College. Cupid's arrow was shot in the direction of Mary Nelson, who was chosen Miss Valentine of 1953 and had the pleasure of bestowing a kiss on Cupid's angelic face. Red and white streamers decorated the auditorium, along with snappy cupids, which were displayed on the walls. To top the dance off, refreshments were served, followed by dancing which ended our Valentine's celebration.

THE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Six o'clock was the beginning of the Christmas Party for the dorm students. All participated in decorating their tables, making everything in accordance with the festive season. An all-girls table (more power to the girls) won first prize, and the winners received a box of chocolates. After the dinner of turkey, no less, was finished, everyone went up to the auditorium to await the arrival of Santa Claus. Due to his lateness in arriving, entertainment in various forms was put on by the students and the teachers. The skit put on by the teachers was very amusing, with such characters as Dr. Garden, Mr. Miller, Mr. Brown, Mr. Calhoun, etc., participating. Finally the long-awaited Mr. St. Nicholas appeared with presents for all. Seems to me that Santa Claus looked an awful lot like Darrel Shaw underneath all that beard.

At nine o'clock the rest of the students came for the dance, which featured the dance band of Harold Sheeran. Don Brownlee gave out with the song, "I saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus", to everyone's amusement. Refreshments were served at approximately 10:45 and the dance ended at 11:45, with a Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night!

ENGINEERS' BANQUET AND DANCE

On Friday, March 27th, at exactly 6:30 p.m., the farewell banquet for the 1953 University Class and Staff commenced. Mrs. Wilson and her competent staff, believing in the old saying of "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach", prepared a delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings. Grace was given by Doctor Garden and dinner was then served.

Toastmaster Doug Hamilton presented a toast to "The Queen", followed by Bob McAlpine, who then gave a toast to "The School". In this, he commented on the advantages and opportunities Mt. Royal College offered to its students. This was replied to by Doctor Garden.

A musical prelude was presented by Dallas High, who was applauded back for two encores. Among the selections played were "Two Sleepy People", "Cross Hands Boogie" and "I'm in the Mood for Love".

Mr. MacArthur presented the toast to "The Class", in which he wished them the best in the future and said how much they would be missed. The apt reply was given by Charles Jinks.

Greetings from the Students' Council were presented by the president, Jim Wallace, who said: "It is a real privilege and honor to have the Engineers as participants in the everyday life of our school".

Last of all the toasts presented were the greetings from the Board of Governors.

Drawing this occasion to an appropriate and fitting end, the Engineers, who believed strongly that "United they stand, divided they fall", joined together with mixed feelings in the singing of "Auld Lang Syne".

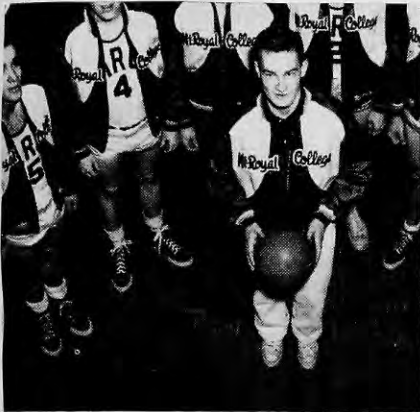

At the dance following the banquet, school colors decorated the hall, along with tinsel paper, which was made into books representing subjects taken by the engineers. Mrs. Bonaparte's Orchestra was there and they featured one of M.R.C.'s students, Phyllis Kopp, as guest vocalist. Adding to the excitement of the evening, country style dancing was introduced to everyone's delight and amusement (delight for those dancing, amusing for those watching). All in all, a MY-T-FINE time was had by everyone.

M.R.C. vs. Central

It is the sincere wish of the Department of Athletics to foster a sound and expanding program of inter-house sports. Inter-scholastic athletics make a great contribution to the life of the College as a whole, and to the lives of the restricted group of people who participate in the program. They are not designed to, nor can they ever, meet the needs of the great majority of students for vigorous, healthful exercise, fun, and competition at a level suited to their interests, abilities, and available time for recreation.

The Department recognizes fully the vital role that inter-house athletics should play in the lives of many students, and is prepared to go "a'll out" for a sane, solid, inter-house program. But it requires the whole-hearted co-operation of many interested students, as executives, as officials, and as participants, if the inter-house program at Mount Royal is to be one to which we can point with pride.

The write-ups, group photos, and candid shots on the ensuing few pages are indicative of an active and successful athletic year.

Student enthusiasm has been both encouraging and appreciated.

To those of you who will not be returning to the College next year, may I take this opportunity to wish you every success and much happiness in the years that follow. To those of you who will be returning, I express the hope that you will once again take an active interest in the athletic program.

By Louis Lorincz

Under the able hand of playing coach Doug Hamilton the senior Varsity began to roll. Eight games were played in the season, 3 against local high schools, 2 road trips and 2 local games.

M.R.C. vs. Central

Played at Mount Royal College

This was the opener of our season and we were edged out by three points. The smooth-playing Central squad and our hesitant boys battled back and forth, always keeping the score quite close. The Central squad managed to keep a two point lead after the third quarter and our boys could not suppress it. A foul shot sunk by Beaudry put the score up one more and the game finished the same way. High Scorers for M.R.C. were Louis Lorincz with 11 followed by Doug Hamilton with 10. For Central, Beaudry potted 10.

M.R.C. vs. Crescent

In this game our boys seemed to have finally gotten into the groove and managed to defeat Crescent to the tune of 40 to 29. Good offence and defence were displayed by both clubs, but Crescent's shooting was off for a considerable part of the game while our boys kept potting quite consistently. High scorers in the game, which was played at Mount Royal College, were Doug Hamilton with 13, while Louis Lorincz potted 10. Don Hatch potted 8 for the losers.

In the second game against Crescent, M.R.C. found itself with only five players and had to submit to Crescent to the tune of 34-20. Our five strove hard but against fresh substitutes their tasks were increased. The Crescent defence was virtually impenetrable, while they were hitting the hoop quite consistently. Our boys seemed to have a bad night in the shooting department. High scorer was Louis Lorincz with 13, followed by Evens with 7. For Crescent, Trulson managed to drop through for 15 points to lead his team to victory.

M.R.C. vs. Red Deer

These series of games have become games of traditional rivalry as this is the third year that we have played their teams. We lost our first game on our home floor by a score of 41 to 26. Although minus the excellent coaching and playing of Doug Hamilton, our boys tried hard but Red Deer managed to pull away in the final quarter. Played after Christmas, it showed both teams to be out of shape, but Red Deer, had more substitutes than we had, and capitalized wisely on that fact.

The second game against Red Deer proved to be the contest of the season. On their floor, Mount Royal held a slim 6 point lead throughout the first three quarters. Constantly threatened, the play was fast and furious by our boys and evenly matched by Red Deer. With three minutes left in the game, a captured toss-in by Red Deer proved to be the turning point. A basket followed as a result, and several seconds later a breakaway again netted a basket. A foul shot and another basket by Red Deer allowed them to forge ahead with but one minute left to play. Holding this lead and adding another basket to it Red Deer won to the tune of 52-49. High scorer for M.R.C. was Louis Lorincz with 15 points, while Doug Hamilton tallied 12. High scorer for Red Deer was Strong with 11.

M.R.C. vs. R.C.A.F.

Played at the Dr. Stanley gym at the college, M.R.C. coasted to an easy 49-26 victory. The weak defence of the Air Force proved to be their greatest undoing while M.R.C. was hitting the hoop from all angles. High scorer was Doug Hamilton with 15 points followed by Louis Lorincz with 13 points. High scorer for the R.C.A.F. was Kelly with 11 points.

M.R.C. vs. Olds Agricultural College

This game was, beyond any doubt, the roughest, most exciting game of the season. A total sum of over 40 fouls, a small floor and a jeering crowd proved to be the essence of a game never to be forgotten. Furious, fast, and ferocious are the only adjectives to describe this game. Our boys were superb that night, sinking a repertoire of shots unknown to even themselves as they went on to defeat Olds 62-45.

Action was abundant on and off the floor; similarly for clowning. After a safe 17 point lead was obtained the boys began to pull out their pet bag of tricks and then the fun began. Good cheerleading and support from loyal M.R.C. fans gave the boys a helping hand also. High Scorers for M.R.C. were Louis Lorincz with 15 points and Doug Hamilton with 11. This game ended our season for 1952-53 and I am sure all the Senior Varsity players appreciate Doug Hamilton's hard work as their coach.

Mt. Royal Varsity Girls versus Western Intermediate Girls

The first game of the varsity girls was played at Western Canada High School on Feb. 16. The girls from M.R.C. seemed to be trying hard all through the game but Western held their edge throughout. The final score was 37-13 in favor of Western. The following girls scored for Mount Royal: Stowell 3, McCloskey 2, Baldwin 2, Clarke 2, J. Ross 2, Beaudry 1, Minty 1. Three top scorers from Western were: Zurah 9, Fisher 7, Turner 7. Mr. Buttle and Louie Lorincz were present to coach our girls and refereeing was done by D. McKenstry and F. Code of Western.

Mt. Royal Varsity Girls vs. Red Deer Girls

At 3:30 on February 21st, 1953, a cheerful busload of basketball players, cheerleaders, spectators, coaches and chaperones started out for Red Deer. The girls' game started at approximately 8:30 with both teams showing much promise of being victorious. In the first half of this game Red Deer took the lead by 8 points, the score standing at 13-5. However in the third quarter the Mt. Royal girls picked up and pushed ahead by scoring 6 points to their opponents' 8, bringing the score up to 16-11. In the final quarter the Red Deer squad edged ahead again to win with a 4 point victory, the final score being 21-17. Throughout this game sportsmanship, much enthusiasm, as well as a fine example of good basketball playing was displayed by both teams.

Mt. Royal Line-up: Minty 6, Beaudry 4, L. Ross 3, Finley 2, Garvie 1, McCloskey 1, J. Ross, Clarke, Stowell, Davies, Baldwin.

Red Deer Line-up: Meeres 8, Pigion 4, Rierson 2, Hollworth 2, Kimbermann 2, Wilson 1, Hobcurk 1, White 1, Sutton, Lawrence.

Mt. Royal Varsity Girls vs. Olds

The third and last game of the basketball season turned out to be victorious for our girl's basketball team, the final score being 21-20. The game was fast and packed full of action but the exceedingly small floor was most difficult to get used to. In the first half Mt. Royal Girls trailed; but it was in the third quarter that both teams began a strong battle for victory, the pace being hard with the offensive and defensive work very good on both teams. With less than one minute and 45 seconds of play left in the game our girls trailed by one point. Helen Minty received a quick pass, swished the ball through the basket thus giving Mt. Royal a one point victory.

Mt. Royal Line-up: Minty 11, Stowell 4, Beaudry 2, J. Ross 2, Finley 2, Clarke, L. Ross, Garvie, McCloskey and Davies.

MOUNT ROYAL JUNIOR VARSITY

The Junior Varsity basketball squad was guided through a busy season by Louis Lorincz. The club was entered in the Young Men's division of the Inter-Church League, and gave an excellent account of itself. Upon completion of the eight game schedule the "Jay-vees" were pitted against Knox United Church in the play-offs. The Knox team emerged as victors.

In addition to their regular schedule, the "Jay-vees" played exhibition games on Sunday evenings, and went on road trips to Red Deer and Olds. A total of twenty-five games were played during the entire season, and in thirteen of these the "Jay-vees" were the winners.

Much credit is due to coach Lorincz, who, through various means, kept the boys on their toes throughout the season.

INTER-HOUSE BASKETBALL

Louis Lorincz

The Basketball season of 1952-53 turned out to be a highly successful, one with a keen sense of competition and a sportsman-like attitude shown. Grand aggregate honors in Inter-House Basketball were swept away by Stanley House by winning first place in two divisions and placing second in the other two. Sectional Champions were:

Senior Men — Garden House; Junior Men — Garden House; Senior Women — Stanley House; Junior Women — Stanley House.

As a result, Stanley House was awarded the Stanley Trophy for Basketball Grand Aggregate. In a total of 8 league games the sectional high scorers were:

BOWLING

The M.R.C. Bowling Club enjoyed one of its most memorable and successful seasons under the supervision of Mr. Buttle. An innovation this year was the awarding of prizes, to both men and women, for hidden scores. These prizes were donated by the management of the Olympic Bowling Alleys.

Inter-House competition was very keen, as the final standings would indicate. Grand Aggregate honors, won last year by Kerby House were won this year by Stanley House.

Individual team honors were won by the "Killers" (Kerby-House), who won 16 out of 22 games. Team Captain was Rudy Swab. Team members were Jim McPherson, Harry Protopapas, and Marlene Whissell. Another Kerby House team, the "Knite Hawks" was runner-up. Team Captain was Bill Cunningham.

The Team High Singles honors went to the "Grand Slams" by virtue of a game score of 885. The Team High Trio was won by Bill Cunningham's "Knite Hawks", with a 1674 total. Captain Dona Stearns, of the "King Pins", walked off with the Ladies' High Single and High two championship. Her scores were 256 for one game, and 385 for two games.

Harry Protopapas (Killers), and Ray Bolokoski (Simple Simons) emerged in a tie for the Men's High Single honors, each with a score of 292. Ray Bolokoski took the Men's High Two title with a 502 total.

An added feature this year was the Telegraphic Bowling Meet, sponsored by the Western Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union (Women's Division). The M.R.C. team was composed of Dona Stearns, Joan Garvie, Joan Campbell, Ann Allan, Shirley Brunner, Ruth Wong, Arlene Rice, and Marg Hostland, and was under the supervision of Joan Ross, Women's Athletic Representative. The five high scores were submitted. Although M.R.C. placed tenth (out of twelve) nobody seemed to mind, as all thoroughly enjoyed the free games.

HOCKEY

The Varsity hockey team was entered for the first time, in the Junior "B" Division of the Calgary Community Recreation Association League. Other clubs in the loop were Hillhurst, Capitol Hill, and Inglewood. Games were played on Monday and Wednesday night. Although the Varsity squad did not set the league on fire, it certainly made its presence felt, and very nearly caused some upsets. The season ended with an exhibition game against the Red Deer Wings. The Varsity team emerged somewhat bloody but nevertheless victorious by a 2-0 margin. Thanks to the coaching of "Al" Buttle, the season was a great success.

VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball followed Basketball in the Inter-House seasonal program. Competition was keen, and the many students who participated, some for the first time, found themselves involved in a new and fascinating activity. Garden House swept the Senior and Junior Men's honors, while Kerby House won the Women's Open title. Good sportsmanship, combined with skillful playing, made this a popular sport for players and spectators alike.

PHIL PARR

Girls' Volleyball

With the basketball season coming to an end, it was March 4th which marked the opening date of the volleyball competition between the three houses. These games like previous sports were played in the gym during noon hour in order to give all students a chance to take active part in the extremely well-organized Athletic Programme which we at Mount Royal are all very lucky to have, thanks to our most competent and respected sports director, Mr. Buttle.

Due to the fact that there was less interest among the girls in playing volleyball, the girls decided to join the junior and seniors together in an open league. There was an average of 8-10 girls on each team representing the different houses, Kerby, Stanley and Garden. In this event Kerby came out the champs by winning five games out of six and receiving a total of ten points. Garden and Stanley followed with six points and two points respectively. Those winning for Kerby were: Claggett, Rice, Beaudry, Hay, winning for Kerby were: Claggett, Rice, Beaudry, Hay, McLellan, Rudolph, Davies, Stowell, Winters, Hal-

GOLF

The annual Inter-House Golf Tournament was held at Inglewood Course under ideal conditions. Norma Price, (Garden) emerged as tournament champion with a score of 75 for the 18 holes. This shattered the previous tournament record of 92, set last year by Denis Clarke of Kerby House.

Runner-up in this year's event was Ralph Beuhler, also of Garden House, with a score of 90.

Winner of the George Egleston Trophy for Golf Grand Aggregate was Garden House, with 29 points. Stanley House was runner-up, with 24 points. The Trophy was won last year by Kerby House.

BADMINTON

Badminton "ruled the roost" on Wednesday afternoons and evenings, and participation was enthusiastic. A very successful Inter-House tournament was held after Christmas, with Stanley House winning Grand Aggregate honors and the Howard B. MacDonald Trophy. Results of the tournament are as follows:

Ladies' Singles — Wilma Wolfe (Garden). Runner-up — Marlene Whissell (Kerby).

Ladies' Doubles — Betty Cummings and Wilma Wolfe (Garden). Runners-up — Louise Beaudry and Marlene Whissell (Kerby).

Men's Singles — John Phillips (Stanley). Runner-up — Walter Pietrosky (Stanley).

Mixed Doubles — Bill Cunningham and Louise Beaudry (Kerby). Runners-up — John Phillips and Eileen McCloskey (Stanley).

Men's Doubles — Bill Cunningham and Bob McAlpine (Kerby). Runners-up — Bill Selby and Don Jorgenson (Stanley).

BASKETBALL

Golf Tournament

Doug Hamilton (Garden House) won the Men's Open Title with an 18-hole total of 35, and established a new record in doing so. Runner-up in this event for 18 holes. This equalled last year's record of 47 for 18 holes. This equalled last year's record of 47 for 18 holes set by Bob Rudd (Kerby House).

Joan Ross (Stanley House) once again won the Women's Open Title with an 18-hole total of 38, and, at the same time, shattered her last year's record of 55. Runner-up in this event was Helen Minty (Stanley House) with an 18-hole total of 53.

Free-Throw Tournament

Lloyd Conradson (Garden House) won the Men's Open Title by virtue of his 30-40 score, and set a new record. Last year's champion, Lou Lorincz (Stanley House), was runner-up with a 28-40 score. His score last year was identical.

The Women's Open Title was won by Gwen Rudolph (Kerby House) with a 16-40 score. Runner-up was Evelyn Gathercole (Garden House) with a 14-40 score. Last year's record of 19-40, set by Shirley McKenna (Stanley House) remains untouched.

It was a crowded bus and a rather "snooty" lady regally boarded the trolley and gave a disdainful glance at the working men who were seated. Finally one gentleman rose and gave her his seat. "The FRIENDLY way to travel."

On his deathbed, Smith made his wife promise never to go out with another man. She promised this, and soon Smith died, but before he did, he gasped, "If you do go out with other men, I shall turn over in my grave." Ten years after, Mrs. Smith died also, and when she asked of the angel in charge: "Where is my husband?", the angel replied: "What's his name?" Mrs. Smith said: "Joe Smith." "Well, there are lots of men named Joe Smith," said the angel, "you'll have to give me something more definite than that." "Well he always said that if I ever went out with other men he would turn over in his grave." At this the angel exclaimed, "Oh, you mean Pinwheel Smith!"
